Wolf-Hellweg

THE marriage rites for Miss Juanita Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Wolf, of Columbus, and Elmer L. Hellweg, son of Daniel H. Hellweg, of Lincoln, were read at Immanuel Lutheran church in Columbus Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Three hundred guests were present for the ceremony, read by the Rev. A. H. Guettler. Autumn blossoms were used on the altar with tall standards twined with autumn leaves.

W. C. Pozehl, the organized, played a quarter hour organ prelude as the guests were gathering. Lee Lange, of Lincoln, sang "Because," by d'Hardelot.

The bride's sister, Miss Dorothy Wolf, of Lincoln, was her only attendant. She had chosen an afternoon frock of dusty rose sheer wool with black accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of tea roses and ageratum.

George W. Wolf, of Columbus, brother of the bride, was Mr. Hellweg's best man. Robert Doerr and William Pflug, both of Lincoln, were the ushers.

Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride appeared in an afternoon gown of sheer wool in battleship blue. She completed it with brown and gold accessories and a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses and bronze chrysanthemums.

A buffet supper followed at the home, with thirty-five guests attending. The wedding cake and white tapers entwined with smilax were used on the refreshment table. Misses Violet Meyer and Viola Cottau assisted.

When Mr. and Mrs. Hellweg return from their wedding trip, they will reside at 1129 Harrison avenue in Lincoln. She is traveling in green wool with an English tweed jacket and brown accessories.

Lincoln guests were D. H. Hellweg, the bride's father, Mr. and Mrs. Deitrich D. Hellweg, Dr. and Mrs. Harold P. Hellweg and daughter, Janice Ann, Mrs. Hanna Brinkman, Miss Wilma Obermiller, and Misses Mildred and Elizabeth Pflug.

Hardin-Frasier

IN St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Omaha Tuesday, October 14, Miss Ila Hardin, daughter of Mrs. O. C. Hardin, of Sauk Center, Minn., became the bride of Marvin Frasier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Frasier, of Ceresco. The Rev. Mr. Gallagher read the lines at 7 o'clock in the evening, before an altar on which the arrangements were in white with lighted tapers. Yellow, gold, and bronze chrysanthemums were used in the church.

Preceding the ceremony, Robert Butts sang "Because" and "At Dawning." Miss Alice Merriam played the wedding music.

Mrs. Walter Johnson, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. She wore gold satin with a brown and gold headdress and brown sandals. She carried gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

Edwin Frasier, of Ceresco, was his brother's best man. The ushers were Lee Huey and Dale Hardin of Sauk Center, the bride's brother.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, C. M. Hardin, of Omaha, was gowned in ivory slipper satin made with a silhouette bodice and long fitted sleeves. The skirt fell into a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a seed pearl tiara. Mrs. Frasier carried white chrysanthemums and wore a gold bracelet, the bridegroom's gift.

A reception for fifty guests followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hardin. Yellow, gold, and bronze were introduced into the appointments, and the bridal party received before a bank of palms and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Lee Huey, Mrs. J. B. Goodwin, Miss Vivian Frasier, and Miss Ann Alexander assisted.

Following a short trip to Kansas City and other southern points, Mr. and Mrs. Frasier will live at Little Rock, where he is stationed at Camp Robinson. She is traveling in a tan suit with brown accessories.

Mrs. Ida Frasier, of Lincoln, the bridegroom's grandmother, was an out of town guest at the marriage.

Hoemann-Mahler

THE marriage of Miss Paula Hoemann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoemann, of Staplehurst, and John Mahler, of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mahler, of Lincoln, was solemnized at Zion Evangelical Lutheran church in Marysville, Neb., Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the Rev. F. W. Bangert officiating.

When the guests had gathered, Mrs. Tho. Aufdemberge sang "Whither Thou Goest." Mr. Aufdemberge presided at the organ.

Miss Sophia Hoemann, of Chicago, was the maid of honor. She was frocked in Sherry
