

Edward A. Frasier.

Edward Alexander Frasier was born Jan. 21, 1858 at Buffalo, Wis., and died at his home in Ashland Dec. 10, 1938 after an illness of over two years.

He came to Emerson, Ia. at the age of 16. In the spring of 1880 he went to West Ashland community and had made this his home since. In 1890 he and his family moved to their present home. He took a great interest in civic affairs and was active in promoting anything for the betterment of his community. He took a great pride in his home and family, and was a devoted husband and father.

April 1, 1886 he married Ida Black. To them were born three sons, and four daughters. One daughter died in infancy. Surviving are his wife Ida; Chester A. of Grinnell, Ia., Roscoe E. of Ceresco; Nellie I. at home, Mabel M. Williamson and Clarence C. of Lincoln, and Myrtle R. Hrubesky of Geneva; 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren; two sisters Miss Ella Frasier and Mrs. Margarette Pierce of Lincoln; many other relatives and a host of friends.

On April 1, 1936 Mr. and Mrs. Frasier celebrated their golden

Clipped By:

KarenRademacher78

Fri, Feb 10, 2017