

Mrs. Mae Allen, Denton, is dead

Mrs. Mae Allen, formerly of Denton, Neb., died Thursday in Houston, Tex., where she had been living the last three years. She was a Denton resident for 13 years.

Surviving are her husband, Harry; two daughters, Elaine and Annabell, at home; three brothers, Melvin Nelson, Lincoln, Rudolph Nelson, Lyman, Neb., and Raymond Nelson, San Diego, Calif.; three sisters, Mrs. Oscar Jones, Osceola, Neb., Mrs. Garfield Moline, Mead, Neb., and Christian organization names Mrs. Rice advisor

BEATRICE, Neb. (AP). Joseph Bower, Omaha, was elected president of the Christian youth fellowship at the state convention of Churches of Christ which ended here Monday.

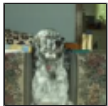

Other officers named were Keith Stephenson, Fairbury, vice president; Helen Ruth Kown, Falls City, treasurer, and Mrs. Roy Rice, Lincoln, adult advisor.

Mrs. Richard Peterson, Ceresco, Neb.; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Laura Murphy, Waverly, Neb.

Funeral services and burial were at Houston Saturday.

Mae Nelson Allen - (brodd)

Clipped By:

marlysoj

Sat, Jul 26, 2014